Completes training

Marine Pvt. Sharon M. Overton, daughter of Alvin L. and Mary J. Overton of Route 1, Box 27B, Pamplin, Va., has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

During the eight-week training she was introduced to the typical daily routine that she will experience during her enlistment, and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

She participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills including close order drill and first aid. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1979 graduate of Appomattox County High School, Appomattox, Va., she joined the Marine Corps in October 1980.

Bull sales scheduled

Five performance tested bull sales are scheduled at central test stations throughout the state from late January to early April.

The first two Virginia Beef Cattle Improvement Association (BCIA) sales will be held in January, one at Culpeper and one at Red House. The Culpeper Senior Bull Sale will be held at the Culpeper Agricultural Enterprises building at noon Saturday, Jan. 24. The top performing two-thirds of 118 bulls on test will be offered for sale. The test group includes 62 Angus, three Hereford, one Brangus, two Shorthorn, one Devon, 33 Polled Herefords, four Charolais, 11 Simmentals and one Limousin.

Through 112 days of the 140-day test, the Culpeper seniors are gaining at a rate of 3.19 pounds per day with an excellent weight-per-day-of-age of 2.78. Approximately 80 bulls will sell on Jan. 24.

At Red House, 124 senior bulls include 67 Angus, 39 Polled Hereford, 13 Simmental, four Charolais and one Red Angus. Through 112 days of the 140-day test, the bulls gained 3.07 pounds per day with exactly the same weight-per-day-of-age as the Culpeper senior bulls. Approximately 83 bulls will sell at Red House on Saturday, Jan. 31 at noon.

Another Red House sale featuring junior bulls and registered females is set for Saturday, March 7 at noon. The top two-thirds of 63 bulls will sell. They include 42 Angus, 15 Polled Hereford, two Red Angus, one Shorthorn and three Simmental. Through 84 days on test, they are gaining at 3.31 pounds with a 2.72 weight-per-day-of-age.

The top 80 percent of 34 registered heifers, including 12 Angus and 22 Polled Hereford, will sell. This represents the fourth year that heifers tested on a silage ration will be sold at Red House.

A second BCIA junior bull sale is planned for Friday, March 27, at the Culpeper Agricultural Enterprises building. The group of 89 young bulls on test is comprised of 53 Angus, 14 Polled Hereford, 14 Charolais, five Simmental, one Red Angus, one Brangus, and one Limousin. The 84-day weights on these bulls will be found in the February issue of The Virginia Cattleman and 112-day weights will be given in the March issue.

The Southwest Test Station at Wytheville will conclude its second year of testing with a sale on Saturday, April 4, at noon at Grandview Farm, north of Wytheville. The 111 bulls tested at the Brent Moore Farm include 53 Angus, 26 Polled Hereford, 15 Simmental, eight Charolais, five Hereford, two Red Angus and two shorthorn. Their 84-day and 112-day weights will appear in the February and March issues of The Virginia Cattleman.

All sales are sponsored by the Virginia BCIA, headquartered in Daleville.

Manager for all sales will be the Virginia Angus Association. Breeders who desire catalogs and additional information should contact Vernon Kindig, secretary of the Virginia Angus Association, 909 Landonia Circle, Charlottesville, Va. 22901.

NAACP sets meeting

The Appomattox Chapter of the NAACP will have a special meeting on Monday, Jan. 26, 1981...at 7:30 p.m. at the Galilee Baptist Church, Appomattox, Va.

In the future all regular meetings will be held each month at the Galilee Baptist Church.

4-H club news

Mrs. Coleman's 4-H Club

First, Cheryl Johns, our President called the meeting to order. Then we stood and said the Pledge to the American and 4-H Flags. Then the recreation leaders led us in some songs and games. We played 4 corners, and then we played 7-Up. Then the secretary, Terri Hancock, read the minutes of the last meeting. Then we finished up the old business. Then we talked about the new business, and about public speaking. Cheryl Johns, our President, adjourned the meeting.

Sydni Jackson, Reporter

Mrs. George's 4-H Class

Mrs. Walton came and showed us how to make ornaments for our Christmas tree at home. Next she discussed Christmas cookies, and Christmas food with us before the meeting was over.

Lisa Pulliam, Reporter

Mr. Seymour's 4-H Club

Roger Bates led us in the Pledge to the American flag. Robin Miller led us in the Pledge to the 4-H Flag. Then the recreation leaders led us in some songs. The Secretary, Kelly Webber, read the minutes of our last meeting. Mr. Sweet then passed out Certificates of Recognition and talked a little about new projects. We talked about Public Speaking and pine seedling orders. Mr. Sweet then showed us how to make some gift items and candles.

We then drew names to give away a bookmark and some other gifts.

The meeting was then adjourned.
